ABOUT GRACE

Grace is a passionate and motivated instructor who grew up around golf her entire life! She is determined to share her love of golf with people of all ages especially women and children. Growing up, Grace's father was a golf course superintendent which helped spark her passion for golf at a young age. As a beginner, Grace began taking classes and lessons with Operation 36. She started playing competitively in 2015, which led her to play for University of Mount Olive. During her time at UMO, Grace earned her Bachelors of Science in 2023, double majoring in Exercise Science, and Health and Physical Education, plus a minor in Coaching.
